

A 12-YEAR RECORD OF SUCCESS

Resorts World has been honored to serve the local Queens community, New York City and State. Our commitment has been to create a safe, responsible, best-in-class gaming and entertainment environment, with good-paying permanent union jobs, while giving back to our neighbors by investing in the community we call home. Below are a few highlights of what we've achieved since 2011.

- Resorts World New York City has for years been the State's largest taxpayer.
- Resorts World New York City has invested more than $1.1 billion into Southeast Queens.
- Resorts World has generated more than $4 billion for the state's public education fund.
- More than 1,000 people currently work at Resorts World New York City, with more than half living within Queens County.
- Our workforce is more than 80 percent people of color and 49 percent female.
- Resorts World New York City welcomes an average of more than 5 million guests every year.
- Visitors have their choice to play at approximately 6,500 slot machines and electronic table games.
- Resorts World New York City has served as a pillar in Southeast Queens as host of a variety of community, professional and private events.
- Resorts World New York City has created several hundred jobs over 10 years of construction at the site. That included keeping the building industry active during the COVID-19 pandemic, as Resorts World New York City responsibly kept construction workers employed to complete the Hyatt Regency.
- Resorts World Gives has supported more than 300 local organizations and given more than $5 million in donations to groups including Boys and Girls Club of Metro Queens, Queens Library, and Jamaica Hospital Medical Center.
- The Hyatt Regency at JFK Airport at Resorts World New York City is the area's first four-star accommodation in a generation. Its total of 400 rooms is the largest among its sister properties that house airline staff, visiting sports teams and global travelers.

